brigade of infantry, has appointed

Colonel of this Third regiment. It is intended that this shall be the first regiment in the field under the last call of Preddent Liucoln. The officers thus far connected with this organization are men who are well known—men who have seen service and had experience in the neld, and it is the intention of Brig. Gen. F. B. Spinola to make this regiment one of the timest that have gone to the seat of war, and for that purpose no pains or expense will be spared. Colonel Mariott N. Croft is an officer of much ability, and bears recommendations from Generals Sect and McClelian. He should be made in the Mexican war and the late rebellion, and is a hard working officer, and one who will make the regiment what it should be. The men will be well cared for and placed under the careful drill of experienced offisers. Those officers
